Deh Cho Tribal Meeting
January 11-14, 1994

Resolution #2:

WHEREAS, Natsejee K'eh, the Alcohol and Drug Treatment Centre located on the Hay River Reserve, has experienced periods of low admittances during the course of operations,

AND WHEREAS, during these periods of low admittances, Natsejee K'eh wishes to accept clients from outside the Northwest Territories in the best interest of providing necessary healing to aboriginal people regardless of location,

AND WHEREAS, in the past northern clients were admitted to Drug and Alcohol Treatment Centres south of 60th parallel

AND WHEREAS, the Natsejee K'eh Centre offers a specialized treatment program based on Dene cultural and spiritual principles,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Deh Cho Tribal Council supports Natsejee K'eh's efforts to receive clients from outside the Northwest Territories during the periods of low admittance,

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Deh Cho Tribal Council directs the Department of Social Services to coordinate with Territorial and Provincial departments to facilitate attendance of clients from outside the Northwest Territories.
