Deh Cho Tribal Meeting
January 11-14, 1994

Resolution #3:

WHEREAS, the Pathways to Success Strategy is advocated as a joint partnership between Canada Employment and Immigration and aboriginal people,

AND WHEREAS, the Deh Cho Tribal Council and its member communities participate in the Pathways to Success Strategy through the Dene Tene Advisory Group,

AND WHEREAS, the Dene Tene Advisory Group has been established to operate under the authority of the Deh Cho Tribal Council by resolution of the Deh Cho Tribal Council,

AND WHEREAS, the Deh Cho Tribal Council and its member communities are frustrated with the apparent lack of the realization of the supposed joint partnership, understanding and principals between the Canada Employment and Immigration Commission and the Dene Tene Advisory Group,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Deh Cho Tribal Council hereby request that Warren Johnson, Regional Director General for the Department of Indian Affairs and Northern Development, NWT Region, attend the next Dene Tene Advisory Group Meeting to investigate and resolve the Pathways to Success problems being experienced by the member communities of the Deh Cho Tribal Council,

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Deh Cho Tribal Council directs the representatives of member communities on the Dene Tene Advisory Group to re-evaluate their community's participation in the Pathways to Success Strategy.
