

Deh Cho First Nation Leadership Meeting
Hay River Reserve
October 5 - 7, 1999

RESOLUTION # 02

RE: Horn Plateau Protected Area

Whereas the Deh Cho First Nations own, use and occupy the Horn Plateau since time immemorial; and

Whereas the Deh Cho First Nations have asserted Dene title and rights through the Declaration of Rights passed at the Assembly in Kakisa in 1993, the 21 principles of common ground and the Deh Cho process; and

Whereas the Horn Plateau is of great significance to Deh Cho communities with regards to its ecosystem and maintaining a traditional life style; and

Whereas the Deh Cho First Nations will work co-operatively with other First Nations communities to ensure that all First Nation interests are addressed.

Therefore the Deh Cho First Nations support the establishment of a protected area on the Horn Plateau where no industrial or commercial activities will take place according to the attached draft boundary.
