

Are you interested in learning an Indigenous language?

The Mentor-Apprentice Program is a way of learning a language where a fluent speaker (mentor) teaches a committed language learner (apprentice) by doing everyday activities using only their Indigenous language.

The program aims to have apprentices increase their ability to understand and speak the language by “living life in the language.”

Spoken language is the focus of the program.

Training is provided for: Dene Kədə́, Dēne Sułíné, Dene Zhatié, Dinjii Zhu’ Ginjik, Inuinnaqtun, Inuvialuktun, néhiyawēwin, or Tłı̄chq.
